1. The concept, purpose and structure of this website are unclear. There is no understanding how to approach and use it. Absence of the entry point and navigation revoke disorientation and anger.

2. The overall view of the webpage is very poor. It is too colorful and overloaded with images.

Here is a problem with the “Next” button responsible for the completion of order. The button does not react to a cursor navigation or click (no changing color, sounds or shifts).

As a result, a user cannot understand what went wrong, because he cannot see any warning or notifications. Lack of progress indicator (spine or bar) leads to complete misunderstanding of the situation. The user does not know what to do next and presumably exits from this website.

Carousel component is not functional. It does not slide either forward or backward. A user clicks on side arrows but can see no action.

Another issue is a very slow image download. It took two minutes despite high-speed internet. It could be explain by the enormous size of the image or poor compatibility with the browser or OS.
